

Our Holiday Vacation

Our first stop in our holiday trip was the beautiful Caribbean. Here we experienced powder-sand beaches, dazzling blue waters and palm trees that seemed to sway to a calypso beat.

Eventually, we had to move to our next destination in southern Africa. As part of our journey, we went on a safari! It was amazing – so many animals!

We were sorry to leave, but the next destination was still better: we never had been so far to the East! For one week we have been surrounded by nothing but clear water!

Before we knew it, our next stop was upon us - the middle of the Asian steppe. Here, we had the pleasure of a long horseback ride.

On to our last stop - across the Red Sea, in the inner Horn of Africa., where we saw the spring of the river Nile. Beautiful – just beautiful.
