

It's almost over. We are close to escaping. The teacher trapped us, but we've found the key! We left hidden clues to help any others that she may lock in here. Fortunately, we've disguised them well enough that she will not notice nor understand them. There's a box with a strange lock. Spell the weird word to open it and you will be on your way!